

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to all of us at CordialP, and we are committed to respecting and protecting the privacy of our customers. We carefully ensure the confidentiality of each customer's account information and recognize that as a provider of telecommunications services, we must also ensure the privacy of each customer's telephone calling information.

Summary of Our Privacy Practices

- To provide our customers with their own accurate, detailed billing information, we maintain detailed records. We will not sell this Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI) – in any form, including billing records, calling habits or type of service – to unaffiliated third parties.
- We will not provide customer email addresses to outside parties for the marketing of their products. To ensure that you will not receive unwanted recurring marketing information from us, we will provide you with simple instruction on each marketing email from CordialP for you to let us know that you have chosen to stop receiving such emails from us.
- We will keep our customers' personal information secure and confidential through safeguards such as secure encryption technology and by requiring user names and passwords to access personal information.

Background on Customer Proprietary Information (CPNI) and How We Use It

Background on CPNI

In the normal course of providing phone service, CordialP collects and maintains certain information about customer accounts. This information, when matched to a customer's name, address and calling or originating billing telephone number is known as "Customer Proprietary Network Information" or CPNI for short.

Examples of CPNI include information typically available from details on a customer's monthly telephone bill – the type of line, technical characteristics, class of service, current telephone charges, long distance and local service billing records, directory assistance charges, usage data and calling patterns.

CordialP does not sell CPNI to unaffiliated third parties and abides by the federal and/or state CPNI rules that apply to all telecommunications carriers.

Information on Restricting Our Use of Your CPNI

If you would like to restrict the use of your CPNI for the marketing of certain products and services, please Contact Us. Restricting use will not eliminate all Cordia Communications Corporation marketing contacts.
